WILL TREAT POND SWEEPS AT BELMONT

PLANT FIRST TO USE ALUMINUM FOR HANDLING TAILING PRODUCTS

By May 1 the Tonopah Belmont Development company will have completed its plant for the treatment of the sweeps from its tailing ponds. These ponds are operated on the royalty basis and are to be extensively worked this season, as the past winter was most favorable for the bringing of the solutions to the surface.

The mill will have a capacity of thirty tons daily. The method of treatment will be to use cyanide of potassium for placing the values in solution and then precipitate them by the aluminum process, which has been found by experimentation conducted last summer at the MacNamara mill to be more economical than the use of zinc shavings or zinc dust. There is a plant at Cobalt using the aluminum process, but it has never yet been applied to a sweeps plant.

The salts in solution carry from $10 to 10 cents per ton in values, but evaporation leaves a pond of salts to the ton, worth from $120 to $200 a ton. Necessarily some waste is removed in the sweeping, bringing the sweeps to a grade of from $20 to $40 a ton. The Nevada climate makes it ideal for nature to work out that portion of the process, which could not be done by human intelligence or mechanical appliances, namely the light precipitation in the winter and the heavy evaporation during the remainder of the year, thus causing the solutions to come to the surface by capillary attraction, where they are dried ready for sweeping.

ENLARGING RESCUE BIN TO 150 TONS

AUTO TRUCK KEPT BUSY HAULING ORE TO WEST END MILL

The small ore bin at the Rescue Eula was soon found inadequate and it is being enlarged to hold 150 tons. This work is almost completed and it is nearly half full of ore. This ore is being steadily conveyed by an auto truck to the West End mill. Space is to be cleared to the north of the present ore bin for the construction of another of equal dimension. Not one ton of material in ten is now rejected as waste and the latter has the appearance of being a second grade ore. The collar of the shaft is to be raised three feet in order to facilitate the dumping of ore.

STRUCTURE RENOVATED

The Christian Science church has been repainted. The work was done by Contractor L. H. Conley. The edifice now presents a very pleasing appearance.

W. D. FORSTER, manager of the T. & G. Railroad came in from the north this morning and continued on to Goldfield.

CLIFFORD FUNERAL SET FOR WEDNESDAY

HONORS PAID TO THE MEMORY OF THE VENERABLE PIONEER

The funeral of the late Edward Clifford, Sr., will be held Wednesday morning from St. Patrick's church where solemn high requiem mass will be celebrated. In the meantime the body will lie in state at the hall of the Knights of Columbus where committees of the knights will maintain constant vigil until the body is taken from the hall to the church. Last evening the audience chamber of the council was thronged with friends and relatives of the deceased who called to pray for the dead. The rosary and appropriate prayers were recited and the visitors were permitted to take a look at the placid countenance of the veteran pioneer who had done so much for the benefit of Tonopah and Nye county. Prayers will be recited this evening at eight o'clock and the public is invited to visit the hall at any time between now and the hour set for the funeral.

The remains arrived yesterday morning from Reno accompanied by the members of the family who were with their father when the last call came. The Knights of Columbus was represented by a guard of honor, who took charge of the body escorting it to the hall at the head of Brougher avenue. Those of the family present were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nay, John P. Clifford, Joseph Clifford, James W. Clifford and Miss Grace Clifford. This morning the other daughters, Mrs. Harold Warburton and Mrs. H. D. Bahlley arrived from Long Beach and Corcoran, California to attend the funeral.

INSANE ASYLUM FOR TWO HOPHEADS

TWO WOMEN MAY BE COMMITTED TO THE INSANE ASYLUM AS DOPE FIENDS

Under the federal narcotic law there is no latitude allowed physicians in prescribing opium and the result is that at least two women addicted to the use are held subject to orders with the possibility that they may be sent to the state insane asylum. Both cases are under the close surveillance of County Physician Richards working in conjunction with the deputy internal revenue collector and the victims are reduced to the last stages of desperation through deprivation of their ordinary opiate. The craving is so strong that one of these women paid eight dollars last week to go to Goldfield, where there is a bootlegging joint known to the fiends, for the sake of securing $4.00 worth of morphine.

The other woman has been buying her supplies in Reno and last week the revenue officer found a quantity of the white powder carefully packed away beneath a couple of new stockings which had been sent to conceal the real contents of the package.

A Goldfield physician is under close surveillance for prescribing and filling his own prescriptions with a compound that contains a large percentage of morphine. The mixture is sold as an alleged "cure" and, so long as it lasts the patient does not seek any further stimulant. The moment the bottle is exhausted the patient clamors for more proving conclusively that the contents are a preparation of opium.

A letter from the revenue collector in San Francisco compliments his deputy T. J. Lynch for his activity saying the department was convinced that Goldfield had been for a long time the distributing center for the southern district. Several suspects are under close scrutiny in that burg.

FLOWERS COVERED THE BOWLER CASKET

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD THIS AFTERNOON FROM THE ODDFELLOWS HALL

The funeral of the late P. M. Bowler was conducted this afternoon under the auspices of the Nye County Bar association from Odd Fellows hall which was filled with one of the largest crowds assembled at a funeral in the camp. The casket was buried under a wealth of floral offerings. The pallbearers were H. R. Cooke, H. H. Atkinson, Thomas M. Fagan, J. H. Evans, William Forman and Frank Pittman. The services consisted of an eulogy by J. A. Sanders followed by a prayer by Mark Averill, who also spoke at the grave. The Presbyterian choir sang several hymns. Interment was in the local cemetery. Among those of the family present were J. F. Bowler and wife, Mrs. K. Phillips, Mrs. Bowler, the aged mother of the dead lawyer, Mrs. George Keough, Charles D. Keough and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Seyler and Mrs. Jacob Humphrey.

The floral display included the following: large wreath of roses and carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob B. Humphrey; large wreath roses and carnations, Charles Keough; wreath white and pink carnations, H. M. Clifford and Frank Heckley; wreath white and pink roses, Ed. GREAT IMPROVEMENT SHOWN

Since the air connection and communication established between the Halifax and Buckeye there has been a sensible decrease in the temperature of the former mine. Yesterday during the visit of H. C. Brougher and Warren Richardson it was reported that 12,000 feet of air a minute was circulating through the crosscut where the draft was so strong that candles could not be used. The temperature in the Halifax had dropped from 105 to 82 and the humidity to 82 compared with 56 on the surface and 100 as it formerly registered underground.

BUTLER THEATER

Tonight, at the Butler, in addition to the regular picture program, the patrons will be accorded a real treat in having an opportunity of hearing the clever little entertainer—Miss Zannette Whiting in the late popular songs. Miss Whiting is billed as "The Little Girl with the Big Voice," and all those who are fond of this class of entertainment should not fail to be on hand, for the little lady has already demonstrated that she is a singer of exceptional ability, and will make good. She will appear for the last time tomorrow afternoon and evening in an entire change of songs.

The picture program will consist of Pathe Weekly and a five part production entitled "Her Debt of Honor," featuring Valli Valli, the celebrated screen star well known to the moving picture public. Miss Valli was one of the musical comedy stars in London and New York, appearing in "The Queen of the Movies," "The Purple Road," "The Chocolate Soldier" and other big successes. She is supported by a picked cast, among whom are Frank Bacon, the celebrated character comedian who has numerous big successes to his credit, having been with the Cohan and Harris productions for eight years.

Tomorrow, the Burton Holmes' travel pictures (a feature in themselves), and "The Case of Becky," a Lasky production with Blanche Sweet and an old Tonopah favorite—Theodore Roberts in the leading roles. It is also Paramount day, and the balance of the Paramount souvenirs will be given to all the ladies attending the matinee. Miss Whiting will appear both afternoon and evening.

DANCING PARTY GIVEN AT THE McLEOD HOME

A very pretty dancing party took place at the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. D. McLeod in honor of their captivating little daughter, Lois, on Saturday evening.

Spring blossoms were used for decorations and favors, the girls received pretty little shoulder bouquets of pink blossoms, while the boys received the conventional boutonniere of a white spring flower. Those who were present were:

Thomas Fitzgerald, Earl Murphy, Beal Murphy, "Bub" Brown, Hugh Brown, Ogden Monahan, Jack Chandler, George Fee, Jay Anderson, Ford Collet, Frank Gregory, Nellie Fitzgerald, Cornelia Jones, Grueva Duffin, Delphine Fowler, Evaline Carlson, Ethel Robb, Mary Cavanaugh, Dorris Dilworth, Carmel Dilworth, Catherine Curieux and the little hostess.
